

Proservartner Expands its Service Offering With the Launch of its Benchmarking Service

London July 29, 2010 - Proservartner a social enterprise management consultancy, focused on Outsourcing, Offshoring, Shared Services and Transformation of Corporate Services, today announced the addition of Benchmarking as part of their services.

The Proservartner Benchmarking service enables a company to evaluate the current position of the company with respect to industry best practices. Proservartner offers experience consultants who go beyond comparisons and can identify the areas and means of improvement to close the performance gap leading to a change process.

Rakesh Sangani Partner, Proservartner “the benchmarking services will offer customers a easy to utilise highly effective tool to measure current position of the firm against industry best practices and offer improvement on the same.”
